

INFORMATION SHEET

1. CAPILANO COLLEGE - a public community college operated under the Public Schools Act and funded at present 100% by the Provincial Government for approved capital expenditures. Operating expenditures are shared 60% provincial and 40% local, less student tuition fees.
2. Opened 1968 - Enrollment 745
1973 - Enrollment 1,966
3. Serving three School Districts: Howe Sound, West Vancouver, and North Vancouver; eleven Secondary schools and 130,000 total population.
4. Operated by the College Council, ten members (two representatives appointed by each school district and four members appointed by the Lieutenant Governor in Council): Mr. J. MacDonald, Chairman, Dr. G. Wilson (Vice-Chairman), Mr. C. Adkins, Ms. D. Baigent, Dr. J. Ellis, Mr. S. Fougberg, Mr. P. Powell, Mrs. E. Ross, Mr. G. Stuart, Mr. W.J. Wallace.
5. Sites: Currently leasing eleven acres - thirty-four acres at Lynnmour under negotiation to purchase. Dispersed services in leased facilities, Squamish, West Vancouver, and North Vancouver.
6. Space: Fifty thousand square feet at Lynnmour, four other teaching centres, three service centres.
7. Expansion: Next emergency phase proposed at over forty thousand square feet.
8. Programs: Transfer to B.C.I.T. and universities, one and two-year Career programs, new vocational programs, counselling, and Community Services Division.
9. Student Activities: growing in athletics and club activities.
10. Special Attention is being given to Self-Paced Learning Programs, Learning Resources Centre, Women's Program, Indian Studies Program and new Career programs, Art and Music.
11. Faculty: Fifty-five full-time, eighty part-time, support staff - seventy.
12. Admissions: An open admissions policy; eighteen years and over.
13. Budget: 1973 Estimated at $3.0 million actual expenditure.
1974 Estimated at $5.3 million - provisional budget submitted.
14. Average age of students is twenty. Everyone is welcome at Capilano! A post-school experience at Capilano is a continuing educational experience for life for all adults who enrol at Capilano College.